Redondo Queen Contest Opened To Local Girls

Girls living in Torrance are now eligible to enter the Redondo Beach Neptune Queen Contest, Doug Kilgour, Chamber committee chairman, reported this week.

The change widens the area covered to include Torrance with the South Bay area. At the same time, Kilgour announced that girls entering the contest will be coached and assisted by the head of a local fashion modeling agency which will also present a three month modeling course to the girl winning the contest.

Two new entries have now brought the total to fourteen girls entered in the July 1 contest at the Redondo Union High School Auditorium, with a deadline of June 10 for entries.

Armed Forces

Army Pvt. Robert L. Rowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Newton R. Rowell, 24808 Oak St., Lomita, completed the light-vehicle driver course May 22 at Fort Ord.

Rowell received eight weeks of training in the principles of automotive maintenance, driving military vehicles under various conditions and the defense of his vehicle during combat.

He entered the Army last November and received basic training at Fort Hood, Tex.

The 18-year-old soldier attended Narbonne High School.

Army Pvt. David R. McNary, whose wife, Claire, lives at 2317 Sonoma, recently arrived in Germany and is now a member of the 54th Infantry.

McNary, a rifleman in the infantry's Company A in Heilbronn, entered the Army last November and completed basic training at Fort Hood, Tex.

The 22-year-old soldier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. McNary, 5304 Reese Road, is a 1954 graduate of Torrance High School and attended El Camino College.

Army Pvt. Charles R. Bryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Bryan, 24423 Park St., completed the light-vehicle driver course May 22 at Fort Ord.

Bryan received eight weeks of training in the principles of automotive maintenance, driving military vehicles under various conditions and the defense of his vehicle during combat.

He entered the Army last January and received basic training at the fort.

The 17-year-old soldier attended North Torrance High School and was employed as a mechanic at Harold's Service in Torrance before entering the Army.

IT'S IN THE BAG... The American Field Service received a check for $650 from the Torrance Education Assn. charity drive, as a part of the $6553 collected from local teachers as part of their annual united charity drive. Fourteen charities benefited. Here, Mrs. J. B. Moseley receives the money for the Field From Superintendent J. H. Hull and Joe Redding, new T.E.A. president. The money will help in the exchange of foreign and American students.

FOURTEEN CHARITIES HELPED WHEN TEACHERS DISTRIBUTE $6547 FUND

Fourteen charities benefited this week, as the Torrance Education Assn. distributed $6547 collected during its annual united charity drive.

The money was donated by local teachers in a united effort. Largest of the grants was for two $600 scholarships which were given to two local high school seniors who plan to go into teaching. This year's winners were Sonja Pesola, North High, and Kiyoko Takeuchi, Torrance High.

Other recipients of the local teachers' charity funds included the Community Chest, $1015; American Field Service, $650; TEA Welfare Fund, $500; Torrance YMCA, $984; American Cancer Society, $286; Mental Health, $165; Heart Fund, $189; Multiple Sclerosis, $121; Cerebral Palsy, $116; Arthritis and Rheumatism, $118; Muscular Dystrophy, $109; and Red Cross, $105.

Mrs. Muriel Cassidy, the TEA charity chairman, made the presentations to the various representatives of the charities.

School Employees To Meet Tonight

Classified employees of the Torrance Unified School district will attend the June meeting of the California School Employees Assn. today in the conference room of the educational materials building here.

Jerry Greenstone of Occidental Insurance Co. will be on hand to answer questions regarding the income protection plan, according to Dorothea A. Johnson, secretary of the local chapter.

Plans for a dinner dance to be held June 20 also will be discussed.

Two Local Men To Get Degrees At Pepperdine

Two local residents will be among the graduating seniors at Pepperdine College next Sunday.

Richard Swancoat, 2513 W. 180th St., will receive a degree in education and Frank Bulard, 2321 W. 177th St. will receive a degree in chemistry.

Dr. Rufus B. von KleinSmid, chancellor of the University of Southern California, will be commencement speaker.
